BISHOPS IN COUNCIL.—The provincial Catholic council at Portland closed Wednesday night. The decrees passed by the council will be sent to Rome for ratification by the pope. Bishop Lemmens of Vancouver took as his subject "The Unity of the Church and the Needs of the Times." Most Rev. W. H. Gross, archbishop of Oregon, made a stirring and eloquent address on the extent and imperishability of the church. He feelingly referred to his predecessors, the late lamented Archbishops Blanchet and Eggers, the latter of whom met such a sad and untimely end by being murdered in Alaska, while on a mission tour. He paid a glowing tribute to the assembled prelates. The service closed with the solemn benediction of the most holy sacrament. The altar was profusely decorated with flowers and lighted tapers, and the music was beautiful and impressive.

ARRESTED FOR LIBEL.—A warrant was sworn out before D. Corvallis, J. P., in Corvallis last Saturday, by T. R. Seraford, city marshal, accusing B. P. Watson, proprietor of the Portland Sunday Mercury, of criminal libel in publishing an article defamatory to his character about two weeks ago. The sheriff armed with a warrant for the Mercury man's arrest proceeded to Portland, where the said Watson was taken under his charge and taken to Corvallis. He was arraigned and waived examination and was placed under $500 bonds to appear at the next session of the circuit court. The Corvallis Times suggests that the charges may be proven true.—Albany Herald.

LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY TONIGHT.—The N. F. Examiner says that the child actress, Georgie Cooper, is acknowledged to be one of the best Cedrics on the stage, and as at every place where she has appeared, immediately won her way into the hearts of her audience. She is supported by the original company, with one or two exceptions, which appeared with her at the Baldwin theatre here in San Francisco, and it is needless to say that all of the characters are imitable in their conception. That the success of the company here is assured is evidenced by a large advance sale for tonight at Patton's book store.

ON WHEELS.—Not Oregon, but a bow-knife factory and general assortment of cutlery, managed by Prof. Sim White & Son, artisans well known in this valley, are camped in their schooner on wheels opposite the court house. A blacksmith's forge, turning lathe, work bench and general tool shop are all under one canvas and the best of steel blades from a penknife to a ten-inch Texas toothpick are turned out at Berkeley. A complete arsenal of daggers and dirks, razors and pruning hooks, is shown, all the workmanship of these tinkers on wheels.

SON WANTED.—Adam Grenz, sr., has filed a complaint before Justice Applegate for the arrest of his son, Adam Grenz, age 16. The boy, who is hard to manage, left home about August 1st, with some money that belonged to the family. He drew his wages about ten days ago and has not reported to his father. Not having been given his time, and the family being very poor, Mr. Grenz sr., came to Salem last night and has started the machinery of the law to overtake his incorrigible son and teach him his duty to stay at home and help his parents.

The Salem-Knights mail route is charge of Silas Morgan.

Hon. Frank Baker and lady departed for Portland this afternoon.

Li-ut. Tripp's recruiting squad are stationed at Oregon City for a month.

The railway commission are in Southern Oregon inspecting the company's lines.

Hops are coming in slowly and none are selling except as they desire to convert their crops into money. The outcome of the elections may affect prices some.

Miss Gertrude Stalls of San Francisco is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. A. Davison.

Look out for Dearborn's great album sale.

Mrs. H. E. Chipman and Miss Lord, of Albany, arrived in the city today, to visit among relatives and friends.

Lots on College hill, Eugene, sell at $35, on three years' time, and a "beautiful residence lot at Florence, the coming Oregon seaport," thrown in.

Senator Fulton of Astoria and C. E. Hyde, prosecuting attorney of the sixth judicial district, were in attendance on supreme court.

The material for planking the front street railway track has been ordered and is partially on the ground, and the order of the city will be complied with.

James D. Hart, L. Rosenthal, and five others as directors have incorporated the Portland and Fairview suburban railway company.

D. S. Jordan, who has been visiting his brother John the past summer, left today for his home in Indianapolis. He is greatly pleased with Salem, and expects to return and locate here at some future date.

There are said to be fifty cases before the Umatilla county grand jury and there will be eight to a dozen candidates for the state prison in a short time.

Manager Koehler returned to Portland this afternoon, after attending the Labish trial at our Circuit court.

N. M. Newport came down from Halsey yesterday as a witness in the Labish case, and returned this morning.

Superintendent Farley, who constructed the state portage railroad at The Dalles, has been completely exonerated from the newspaper attacks made on him.

The Unitarian people have in view a grand public entertainment to be given at the opera house about Thanksgiving time.

A large new stock of baby bugles just received direct from the factory at Geo. F. Smith's, 307 Commercial street. Prices no object.

In the absence of anything in the shape of court business but a plain drunk, the city recorder put on his shooting jacket and took for tall timber at an early hour.

Mrs. F. N. Gilbert and children, started today for Moscow, Idaho, where they will spend the winter. Mr. Gilbert accompanied them as far as Portland.

The annual meeting of the grand commandery of Knights Templar of Oregon, will be held at Portland next Tuesday and Wednesday. Of course the capital city will be represented.

County Recorder McNary has made some good improvements in his office, to facilitate dispatch of business with the greatest promptness.

Miss Emma Miller, missionary for Washington and Montana, and Miss Alice Voss, missionary for Oregon, have been guests at the home of Rev. Robt. Whitaker, and departed for Portland this morning.

A Baker City paper says Hon. Sol Hirsch, United States minister to Turkey, and family will pass through Baker City today and that Carl Alder of Baker City with his family will join Hon. Sol Hirsch and family and proceed to Portland, Salem and San Francisco.

Postmaster Wansmaker is about to introduce a patent mail box, costing $1.10, for folks to put on their doors. It is so arranged that it will be a postoffice in miniature, and will deliver all mailable matter to the postman and receive all the mail carrier brings without any effort on the part of the householder beyond putting the letters and papers in the box or taking them out.

Reverend Review: The Salem CAPITAL JOURNAL congratulates that city on its solid growth, and freedom from the "boom" feature of mushroom towns. THE JOURNAL is right; "boom" is the constant rhyme to "boom," and its just as constant ultimatum.

Choice fresh and dried salmon, plenty of cod fish, smelt, sea bass and other varieties of fish. Eastern oysters, poultry and game. Free delivery. Davison & White, 94 Court street.

N. Y. News, Sep. 15: The monarch of black-faced comedy, yept W. S. Cleveland, took the throne at the New Park theatre last night and wielded the scepter like ye ancient Bourbon, with this difference, that W. S. C. learns something every day. We have not space to enter into detail, but it was great—that is the show. Any one who wants to be posted in the latest and best of modern minstrelsy drop in on the Cleveland.

A RARE CASE OF VILLANY. SEDALIA, Mo., Oct. 22.—A rare case of villany and fraud has come to light in the arrest of Dr. Phillip Simon, alias Charles Rhoring, at Harding, Calhoun county, Ill. In Lincoln, Mo., there once dwelt a doctor named Charles Rhoring with his wife and family. Dr. Rhoring died and was buried at Lincoln in the summer of 1887. In February, 1888, there came to Lincoln the man who is now under arrest at Harding, Ill. He went to board with the widow of Dr. Rhoring. He remained in Lincoln until March 10th of the same year. While there he succeeded in betraying Mr. Rhoring's daughter, and when he left took with him Dr. Rhoring's diploma on the pretext that he desired to have it framed. Instead of returning he went to Illinois, and there hung out his shingle under the name of Charles Rhoring.

READY TO BE HANGED. SEDALIA, Mo., Oct. 22.—Thomas A. Williamson, the Salvation Army murderer of the Moores, father and son, who is to be hanged on October 31, has written the following note to Governor Francis: "Dear Governor: I want to ask you for a favor. Will you let me hang in public? Your friend, Thomas A. Williamson."

"People have expressed the fear that I will break down," said the condemned man, "to such I will say that life has no charms for me, and I will accept such as fate has ordained, like a man who is ready and willing to die. I have spent the greater part of my life behind iron bars and stone, and it would only be a very short time that I would have on this earth confined in the prison, so I prefer hanging. If allowed this privilege on the gallows I will tell the people of the treatment I received at the hands of one whose duty was to stay by me to the last."

Happy Hoosiers. Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from kidney and liver trouble. John Leslie, farmer and stockman, same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best kidney and liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c a bottle at Fry's drugstore, 225 Com'l St."

MISCELLANY.

SMALLPOX. TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 22.—Smallpox has made its appearance in the Italian quarter here and the health officers fear it will become epidemic.

MONTREAL, Oct. 22.—Five new cases of smallpox have been reported.

WOOLEN MILL BURNS. GLENDALE, Mass., Oct. 22.—Fire last night destroyed the Glendale Woolen mills. Loss $200,000. Fully insured.

REPORT DENIED. NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The Herald says: "The report that the president had tendered the war portfolio to Stephen B. Ekins is emphatically denied by that gentleman."

ANOTHER SCHOONER LOST. GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 22.—The schooner Albert Woodbury, of Beverly, that sailed the latter part of August on a cod fishing trip has not returned, and it is believed to have been lost with ten of her men.

BOILER EXPLOSION. MAYSVILLE, N. D., Oct. 22.—A boiler of a threshing machine on Grandin Farm exploded today and six men were killed.

TWO SCHOONERS LOST. GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 22.—The schooner Persy, with a crew of twelve men, and the schooner City Point, of Portland, with a crew of fourteen men, sailed on codfishing voyages about August 25th. Neither have been heard from since, and there is little doubt they have been lost with all hands.

PRESBYTERIAN. BALTIMORE, Oct. 22.—By a vote of 75 to 25 the Presbyterian Synod of Baltimore have adopted a resolution, calling on the general assembly to entirely sever all relations between it and the Union Theological Seminary, of New York, unless the questions between the two be settled before the meeting of the general assembly.

HIGH PRICE OF CORN. SAN ANTONIA, Oct. 22.—Great suffering from drought is reported from Torreon, Mexico. Corn is selling from 50 to 75 cents per peck. A few days ago Jose Castrow, a prominent and wealthy proprietor of a Hacienda attempted to raise the price of grain to four dollars a bushel, the natives became so incensed at his action that they shot him.

YAQUI INDIANS DECLARE WAR. NOGALES, ARIZONA, Oct. 22.—A special says the state of Sonora, and in fact the entire republic of Mexico is again in a fever of excitement by reason of the Yaqui Indians having declared war. The Mexican government is concentrating troops as rapidly as possible and preparations are being made for a vigorous campaign.

TROUBLE WITH INDIANS. CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—A special dispatch from Sidney, Colorado says: Orders have just been received here for five companies United States infantry and cavalry to march from Fort Russell to the scene of the Ute outbreak that occurred four years ago in the Northern part of this country. Word is sent the governor that the Indians are encroaching upon the rights of the settlers. Indians are determined to hunt but the settlers declare they shall not do it off the reservation.

COINAGE OF SILVER. OMAHA, Oct. 22.—Trans-Mississippi Congress devoted its morning session to the discussion of the following resolutions.

Resolved: That we petition the president and the congress of the United States to once more attempt to bring about international recognition and adjustment of silver and money and should this effort fail, that a limited agreement be sought with the nations of the Latin Union whereby the mints of those nations may again be opened for coinage of silver.

THE FAMINE IN RUSSIA. ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 22.—The famine has extended to Siberia. The governor has compiled a report showing that in the districts of Koktbes, Etosh and Petrapalosh, what food supplies the inhabitants possessed have been entirely exhausted, and appeals are made to public charity. Owing to the difficulty of transportation in winter, efforts at relief seem almost hopeless. Supplies from Caucasus are improving in quantity, and it is hoped they will avail to stave off the worst effects of the famine. Advice from the interior of the empire are continually of worse import. People are commencing to riot in Samara, Saratoff and Veronez.

Remarkable Rescue. Mrs. Michael Curtain, Pleasantfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework.—Free trial bottle of this Great Discovery at Fry's drugstore, 225 Commercial street. Large bottles 50c, and $1.
